

MINISTERS TELL TRUE CAUSES OF HERRIN TROUBLE

Claim States Attorney and Sheriff Show Negligence

HERRIN, Ill., Sept. 1. (AP)—The following statement was issued by the Ministers' Association of Williamson county, Illinois, composed of preachers of all Protestant denominations, feeling that the real situation in this county is misunderstood by the public at large, make this statement setting forth their views, in the hope that it will correct the adequate and sometimes prejudiced reports which have appeared in the press.

"Two years ago Williamson county brought upon itself censure of the entire country as a result of a bitter economic dispute which had ended so tragically. We need not review the causes of that lamentable affair. Law at that time was not supreme and the will of the majority was not finding expression. Since then it has seemed impossible to re-establish the supremacy of law and order in our country.

"A sheriff was elected who allowed the bootleggers, the gamblers, and the houses of ill-fame to operate openly. Our state's attorney made little or no effort to curb this wholesale law breaking. The resulting situation was unbearable to law-abiding citizens. An effort was made by the Law Enforcement League to get some action by local officials. Lack of organization made impossible any visible results.

"Prominent men, many of them reported klansmen, then took up the matter to federal authorities and, independent of the local officials, raids by federal deputies on information furnished often times by klansmen, resulted in the conviction of scores of lawbreakers who thought themselves safe. This brought on the bitter feeling between the sheriff and his colleagues, and federal deputies, many, or all, of whom were also klansmen. This has given rise to the popular belief that our controversy is klan and anti-klan. It is really law enforcement thru the legal channels, opposed to non-enforcement by those who are entrusted with that duty. This bitterness caused the assassination of Constable Cyser Cable last February by a mob. Cable had been active as an officer in cleanup raids all over the county. Later followed the attack on Glen Young and wife while enroute to St. Louis. The next morning special police were guarding the road entering Herrin from the west and were stopping all cars, when information was received that a car answering the description of the one in which Young's assailants were riding, was speeding towards Herrin. On reaching the city limits it was ordered to stop. According to the testimony of the police, they answered by opening fire. The police returned the fire, killed one of the occupants and wounded the other. The car was shown to be a stolen car, contained guns, masks, and 'make up,' and was taken by the police to the garage of John Smith to be held as evidence.

"Two weeks ago the Herrin City Court convened for the trial of several klansmen indicted for various offenses alleged to have been committed during some of the raids. The case against the Sheltons for the murders of Cable was also called, but was dismissed when the witness for the prosecution could not be located. Glenn Young failed to appear and his bonds were ordered forfeited. His attorneys claim affidavits of physicians showed good excuse for his absence.

"The sheriff, armed several deputies, among whom were Ora Thomas, was became a deputy the next day after being released from jail where he had served a sentence for bootlegging. But Allison, who is commonly regarded as an ex-convict and other men of this type. A number of leading citizens wishing to prevent the bloodshed which they feared was imminent, wired the governor for help but without effect.

AS JUDGE PONDER LEOPOLD AND LOEB PLAY AT BASEBALL

Caverley Retires as Criminal Chief Justice of Cook County

AD AS JUDGE
CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—While Nathan Leopold Jr. and Richard Loeb, slayers of young Robert Franks, played baseball in the county jail today, Judge John R. Caverley, who will decide their punishment, retired as chief justice of the criminal court of Cook county.

Judge Caverley who heard the presentation of testimony in the Franks case as his last official act as chief justice, must still render his decision in that case on September 10 but when that is given he will go to the superior court to hear divorce cases.

Judge Jacob Hopkins today succeeded Judge Caverley as chief justice of the criminal court.

Judge Caverley's court room, so recently the scene of milling crowds trying to break into the murder hearing, was almost tomb-like in comparison at the opening ceremony for the new court term today and only a few spectators were present. While Judge Caverley spent the day in seclusion, pondering the evidence that may send Leopold and Loeb to the gallows, the youthful murderers engaged in theatrical baseball game of a jail series, Loeb acting as captain and pitcher while Leopold played first base. Their team won 7 to 2. They then settled a controversy over their skill at checkers, Leopold winning two games out of three.

DECATUR, Ill., Sept. 1. (AP)—Searchers headed by city firemen worked three hours tonight dragging Lake Decatur for the bodies of two men reported drowned during a terrific windstorm this afternoon.

WHEELER MAKES FOUR SPEECHES IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Sept. 1. (AP)—Four speeches in Boston and environs served today for the opening of the New England campaign tour of Senator Wheeler, vice-presidential nominee on the LaFollette ticket. The main effort in the open air on Boston Common, brought a straggling but sizeable crowd out on the trail of a heavy rain.

The loudest burst of applause greeted Senator Wheeler's prediction of the election of Senator LaFollette.

SHIPSTEAD SAYS BOTH PARTIES ARE CORRUPT

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., Sept. 1. (AP)—The Democrats are involved as much as the Republicans in the recent exposure of corruption in office, United States Senator Henrik Shipstead of Minnesota said here today.

Speaking for the LaFollette-Wheeler ticket, Senator Shipstead declared the progressive candidates will do what President Coolidge and John W. Davis have promised.

"The Republicans say they want common sense, and the Democrats cry for common honesty, but I don't believe either are sincere," Senator Shipstead said.

Troops Withdrawal Is Threatened By Black

HERRIN, Ill., Sept. 1. (AP)—Three of the six men shot to death Saturday in a clash between Ku Klux Klan sympathizers and opponents were buried today while state and county authorities debated the advisability of withdrawing troops brought here to maintain order.

While Williamson county remained quiet on the surface, the swearing out of warrants charging murder in large numbers by each faction, and the arrest of Sheriff George Galligan on such a charge brought a new tenseness to the situation.

After a conference between Adjutant General Carlos E. Black, Sheriff Galligan and Delos Duty, state's attorney, General Black announced however, that unless there is some new development he would order the troops home tomorrow, as he saw no evidence of lawlessness in the county.

Fears of possible further trouble were increased late today when several automobiles drove up to the rear of the Herrin city hall where they were loaded with rifles, shot guns and ammunition and were then driven away. Those about the city building refused to comment on the maneuver except to indicate that it might be a move to prepare for any eventuality.

The three victims of Saturday's fight who were buried today were Deway Newbolt, an avowed klansman and Chester Reid and Otto Roland, bystanders who were shot during the fight. Tomorrow the three other victims two acknowledged klansmen and one an anti-klanman will be buried.

The conference between General Black and State's Attorney Duty developed into a heated controversy over whether the troops were longer needed. General Black maintaining that the state forces cannot longer be held on the assumption that something might happen.

The state's attorney in a statement declared that new trouble is imminent if the soldiers are withdrawn and expressed his belief that General Black is in sympathy with the klan and may belong to it.

General Black said he would "give dignity" to such a statement by denying it.

Nine alleged klansmen arrested here yesterday by sheriff's deputies and taken to Harrisburg were released when they obtained bonds.

FOUR YOUNGSTERS IN THEIR TEENS UNDER MURDER INDICTMENT

Girls in Case Are Brazen When Accused of Murder of Woman

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Four indictments charging Anna Valanis and her brother, Anthony, Lucille Marshall and William Boyd, all in their teens with the slaying of Mrs. Bessie Gaensslen, will be sought tomorrow by First Assistant State's Attorney George E. Gorman when he presents the case to the September grand jury, it was announced today.

The two boys and Anna Valanis have confessed to their part in the killing but the Marshall girl, when questioned expressed doubt as to their responsibility for Mrs. Gaensslen's death, saying some one else might have visited and robbed her, or that she choked in trying to free herself from the telephone cord with which she had tied her to a bed post.

"Why sorry?" soliloquized Lucille today. "Why, I could beat this case myself—without a lawyer," she added.

The danger of receiving the supreme punishment apparently does not frighten the girls.

"We're pretty and you never heard of a good looking woman—or any other—stretching rope in Illinois," Anna is reported to have said.

WELL KNOWN WARTIME GENERAL IS DEAD

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 1.—Lieutenant General S. B. M. Young, distinguished field officer of the Civil and Spanish-American Wars and first president of the United States War College died at his home here today after an illness of several months which followed an attack of bronchial pneumonia March last.

SAYS COAL INDUSTRY IN ILLINOIS 'SICK'

BENTON, Ill., Sept. 1. (AP)—Representing the coal industry in Illinois as "sick, very sick," State Senator William J. Sneed of Herrin, sub-district president of the United Mine Workers, and candidate for miners state president, in a Labor Day address here today, described some Illinois coal operators as the doctor who would give "one kind of medicine to make it well and another to make it sick."

"There are 363 shipping mines in this state," Senator Sneed said, "less than 300 of which were shipping at the end of 1923. The question on the lips of all is 'What effect will the three year contract have on Illinois?'"

EMPLOYMENT DECLINE IN STATE HEAVY

Chicago, Sept. 1.—In a report issued today on industrial employment conditions in the Seventh Federal Reserve district, the Federal Reserve bank here said, "a decrease of 2.3 percent in payrolls was reported for the month ending July 15th by representative industries of the seventh district."

The decline in Illinois was particularly heavy, the review said amounting approximately to four percent in men and seven percent in payrolls.

ARMY AVIATORS MAY TRY TO MAKE THEIR NEXT HOPOFF TODAY

Plan for Forty Mile Jump to Cartwright Harbor, Then to Boston

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The army air service was informed today that the American around the world fliers would not leave Indian Harbor, Labrador before tomorrow. A despatch from the cruiser Milwaukee said the planes cannot leave Indian Harbor before September 2.

"This may delay Brazos (a tanker)."

The brief message was the first official word received here of the flight plans which contemplate making the next jump to Cartwright Harbor, 40 miles south of Indian Harbor.

From there it is the indication to fly to Pictou and thence to Boston.

Major General Patrick, chief of the army air service and other officers are planning to meet the fliers in Boston.

General Patrick and Assistant Secretary Dwight Davis of the war department left tonight for that city.

DAVIS WOULD OUST RAIL LABOR BOARD

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 1. (AP)—Abolition of the railroad labor board in its present form and the setting up of more flexible machinery under government direction for the handling of railroad labor disputes was advocated here today by John W. Davis, the Democratic presidential candidate. Moreover, Mr. Davis in a Labor Day address to the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, subscribed to the broad principle that, because of the widespread effect industrial disputes have upon commerce and industry, it is the duty of the government to lend its aid and encouragement in every possible way to their settlement.

Mr. Davis expressed the view that in the setting up of machinery thru which there could be "fair and calm discussion" of the subjects at issue with "thorough publicity" there were two fundamentals, first that the boards be composed of representatives of the employers and of the particular crafts concerned—this would leave out public representation such as there now is on the railroad labor board; and second, that such boards, instead of being fixed in their persons should be filled by appointments made from time to time as the controversies arise.

JONES IS AGAINST LABOR INJUNCTIONS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 1. (AP)—Norman L. Jones of Carrolton, Democratic candidate for governor of Illinois, was one of the Labor Day speakers here today. Use of injunctions in labor disputes was his principle topic of discussion. "In my judgment," he said, "labor has much sound reason for complaints."

"An injunction," he declared, "which is so sweeping in its purview that it forbids a group of men from doing something which might be done by each individually, goes beyond the law. An injunction which makes it a conspiracy for a number of men to do what one man might lawfully do, is founded on no just rule of action. An injunction which is so broad in its terms that workmen may be thrown into prison without sufficient proof of intimidation, threats or violence is destructive of human rights and is contrary to the constitution of the United States."

COOLIDGE TELLS HEADS OF LABOR HE FAVORS THEM

Described Conditions Best in History for Workers

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1. (AP)—A group of representatives of organized labor pledged their individual support to President Coolidge during a call at the white house today, and heard a pledge by the president to perpetuate conditions which he described as "the best in the history of our wage earners."

Mr. Coolidge said the government was anxious to continue its efforts to promote the welfare of workmen but told his visitors he did not favor a labor government. Likewise he said he did not favor a corporation government, a bank government or a farm government.

"I am for a common sense government," he added, "by all the people, according to the American policy, and under the American constitution. I want all the people to continue to be partakers in self-government. ****

"We do not need to import any foreign economic ideas or any foreign government. We had better stick to the American brand of government, the American brand of equality, and the American brand of wages. America had better stay American."

The president said the government would continue "its efforts to provide healthful surroundings, education, reasonable conditions of employment, fair wages for fair work, stable business prosperity, and the encouragement of religious worship."

The delegation was composed of about 125 men, including members of many labor unions.

One of them, Daniel Smith of the Switchmen's Union, took a direct shot at the candidacy of Senator LaFollette who has been endorsed by the American Federation of Labor executive committee.

"I am a member of a labor union and have had my card for more than 35 years," he said, "but a labor organization is not, and it never will be, a political party. The political party which Mr. LaFollette is raising, reminds me of the armies that are occasionally organized in Mexico for insurrection purposes."

The president's speech was loudly applauded and afterward the party went to the rear of the white house where Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge posed with them for pictures. The president later entertained his callers at a buffet luncheon in the state dining room. Detailing his views on labor the president said the right of labor to organize, to bargain collectively and to negotiate thru its own chosen agents had been determined and that along with the right to organize went the right to strike "in private employment," compulsory arbitration he added, "to my mind, cannot be reconciled with the right of individual freedom."

In a reference to the railroad labor board, Mr. Coolidge spoke of "an interesting experiment we have been making in relation to railroad labor," and added "it could probably be modified thru mutual agreement to the benefit of all concerned."

"By restrictive immigration," he said "by adequate tariff protection, I want to prevent America from producing cheap goods. I want to see jobs hunting for men, rather than men hunting for jobs. I want taxes to be less, that the people may have more. I want to raise the economic condition, and increase the moral and spiritual well-being of our country."

LEAGUE OF NATIONS DISLIKE REFUSAL OF AMERICA TO ATTEND

United States Was Expected to Continue in Collaboration

GENEVA, Sept. 1. (AP)—The refusal of the United States government to follow the discussion of the conference on arms traffic was one of the chief subjects of comment in Geneva tonight. The comment became general when the league, after the reception of Washington's refusal, made public the text of the official invitation sent to Washington which declared that the members of the council of the league were in agreement that the presence of a representative of the United States government would be of great value.

League officials said tonight that the disappointment over the American refusal was all the greater because everybody expected an affirmative answer.

Having begun collaboration with the league on the arms traffic question it seemed only natural in the view of the officials to expect the United States to continue collaboration until the work was concluded. They added that although the one of the American reply was friendly it seemed peculiar because of the announced American policy that the United States would cooperate with the league whenever possible on special matters interesting America.

The invitation to the Washington government set forth that the position of the United States on the question of arms traffic had been considered as an important factor by the assembly, the council and its experts commissioner and that the members of the council felt that the fullest opportunity should be afforded the United States to follow every step in the development of the question. The presence of the daughter of the late President Wilson, Mrs. McAdoo at the meeting of the assembly this afternoon was also commented upon tonight during a series of dinners which were either given by or attended by Americans.

LAFOLLETTE STATES NEITHER OLD PARTY DESERVES SUPPORT

Says J. P. Morgan & Company Original Source of all Their Plans

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1. (AP)—Senator LaFollette, independent candidate for president declared in an address today to a far-flung radio audience that neither of the two old parties merited support of the nation's voters.

Both, he said, are serving the same masters and seeking to preserve intact the privileges they have yielded to favored interests.

On the other hand, the senator asserted he and his followers welcome into their ranks "all who believe in orderly progress under free speech, free press and free assembly, to solve the problems which confront us."

"We would strike down the privileges enjoyed by the few," he added, "and return to the simple principles of Jefferson and Lincoln."

The banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., declared Senator LaFollette, is the "original source" of the Republican and Democratic plans respecting Europe, which he insisted, are the same.

"The so-called Dawes' plan," he added, "is merely the Morgan plan."

MEAT IS HIGHER THAN IN JULY

CHICAGO, Sept. 1. (AP)—Wholesale meat prices in August were slightly higher than those in July according to a bulletin issued today by the Institute of American Meat Packers but still are relatively low as compared with meat prices during normal times.

"The meat trade," the bulletin continues "during the month just closed was fairly satisfactory. There was a good demand for fresh pork and smoked meats and the beef trade for the months as a whole showed some improvement over July. As in previous recent months the export trade was somewhat quiet, although improved as compared with July. The hog market was strong thru-out the entire month the average price at Chicago remaining well above 9 per 100 pounds after the opening day."

LEGION STAGES MONSTER PARADE AT ENCAMPMENT

Homer G. Bradney and Grant L. Hughes Placed in Office

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Sept. 1.—Bursts of applause swept the floor of the Sixth annual convention of the Illinois Department of the American Legion at the opening session here today as speaker after speaker endorsed National Defense Day.

Dr. E. E. Hagler of Springfield who lost one son in the war encouraged legion men to take active parts in Defense Day programs in all parts of the state and warned that "mugwump radicals," would disturb the programs in many sections. He commended the legion for its active interest in national affairs and predicted that "four years from today, and for forty years thereafter, the president of the United States will be a legion man."

William Long, corporation counsel of the city of Champaign, who at the last moment was assigned to make the welcoming address in Mayor Bubb's absence, announced that Champaign was preparing to make the Defense Test one of the biggest events of the year in the city.

George Huff, director of athletics at the University of Illinois told the delegates that the university was unequivocally in favor of preparedness and described the military training courses at the university. He also described the university's Memorial Stadium, which was built as a monument to Illinois service men, and invited those attending the convention to visit the stadium and inspect the memorial columns, which are now being erected to Illinois men killed in the war.

Attended by a squadron of seven airplanes from Chanute Field, Rantoul, the giant dirigible TC-5 from Scott Field, Belleville, and more than a dozen bands and bugle and drum corps from over the state, the legion staged its annual parade as one of the chief features of the opening session of the convention.

The parade started in Champaign went thru the campus of the University of Illinois and ended in Urbana after covering a distance of more than three miles.

Noted Army Officers

It was headed by a group of distinguished army officers, including Brigadier General Chas. H. Martin, assistant chief of staff, who was commander of the Black Hawk division during the war; Major George Bell Jr., former commander of the Prairie Division; Major General Harry Hale, commander of the sixth corps area; Brigadier General Abel Davis and Brigadier General Harry Reilly, commander of the famous Reilly's Bucks.

These were followed by a troop of cavalry and a company of infantry, the local units of the National Guard, and by the colors. The large number of musical organizations, floats, volutes of the "Forty and Eight," and other special features made it necessary to split the legionnaires into section and intersperse the ranks of the delegates with special attractions. The Illinois Soldiers Orphans' Band from Normal, Illinois, the Kankakee Drum and Bugle Corps dressed as French military musicians, the Vandalla Girls' Band, and the Bloomington band attracted the most attention.

Colonel O. C. Smith of Jacksonville was present with his band from the Illinois School for the Deaf.

The Bloomington delegation, the largest downstate delegation present, used the parade for a demonstration for Thomas F. Harwood of Bloomington, candidate for senior vice-commander. Dressed in eccentric costumes, the delegation split itself into groups and cheered their candidate thru-out the parade. One section, dressed in brown derbies, white knickers and pink golf hose attracted attention particularly. Harwood to date is unopposed.

Bradney Elected

H. G. Bradney of Jacksonville was elected grand chief de gare of the "Forty and Eight" in the state, at the first meeting of that organization. The title, which corresponds to that of commander in the legion, means chief station master. I. D. Kelsheimer of Paxton, was elected grand chief de train, or vice-president, and Paul Zerweh of Alton was re-elected grand commissar in attendant. Ben Gullett of Decatur was re-elected grand garde de la porte, or sergeant at arms.

Grant L. Hughes of Jacksonville was appointed grand correspondent, immediately after the election.

The "Forty and Eight" staged the most important of their program late tonight when their annual grand promenade was held. This corresponded to the legion parade in many respects but the fun-making organization added many facetious features which were not included in the legion event.

TO MUCH KILLING

According to recent figures, one person is illegally slain each year in the United States for every 12,000 inhabitants. This means more than 9,000 murders a year, or more than 25 persons murdered in this country on every one of the 365 days in each year.

It is too bad that Jacksonville must have its share of such killings. Judging from the circumstances under which the deplorable killing of a local resident occurred last Saturday night, probably no one is now more sorry for what happened than the man who did the shooting. The fact remains that the crime was committed, and whatever the circumstances, the taking of a human life is a lamentable thing. The name of the city and county eyes. Maybe it would help things if the people of Williamson county would quit whispering and talk out loud. When folks have trouble and are willing to get together and talk things over before flying at each other's throats, they seldom get farther in the dispute than the conference.

SMALL NATIONS SOUND

The rising of Canadian money to par value, without any juggling or bolting down, is not only a financial triumph for the Dominion but another evidence that financial soundness has nothing necessarily to do with a country's size. In fact, some of the biggest countries have suffered most, since the war, in currency depreciation. Canada, great in area but small in population, now stands at the head of several small nations which, after the United States, lead the world in monetary soundness.

Sweden, Switzerland and Holland are the closest competitors.
Sweden's monetary unit, normally worth 26.8 cents, was quoted at 26.55 cents on a recent date when the Canadian dollar was at par.
Switzerland's normally worth 19.3
cents, was quoted at 18.83 cents; and Holland's normally 40.2 cents was 38.68 cents. Poland seemed to make a good showing, with her unit, normally 19.3, quoted at 19.25, but that showing was brought about by the recent expenditure of giving one zloty, or gold trane, the value of about 2,000, 000.

WORLD TRADE

World trade during the first six months of the year showed a distinct gain over the corresponding period of the year preceding.
A trade review reports shows that the increase in exports from this country exceeded the decline in imports and that 17 out of the 21 principal countries reported trade totals larger than those of the 1923 period.

In the first half of the year the United States imported merchandise and commodities valued at $1,852,702,000 as against $2, 076,221,000 in the corresponding period of 1923. Exports on the other hand gained from $1,905, 000,000 to $2,089,672,000. In the first six months of this year imports declined 11.2 percent while exports increased 9.6 percent. Reports from various other large exporting and importing nations are of a similar nature.

The satisfactory results obtained by the conferences in the London conference should further stimulate a condition which even now is at its best. With the releasing of the vast stores of merchandise which have accumulated in this country and the opening of new markets on this side for increased European output, the report to be issued at the end of the year should disclose further encouraging conditions.

GOLD SPOONS
FOR MUSH

BY ALBERT APPLE

Ninety-Five out of every 100 children in American public schools will have to work with their hands for a living after they leave school and strike out for themselves. So claims A. W.
Frye, supreme commander of the Moosebros. His figures are approximately correct.

Ninety-five percent will work with their hands. Yet about 95 per cent of their education is brain training rather than hand training. Providing gold spoons for eating mush.

The man who makes his living with his hands certainly needs all the brain training he can get.
With his brain developed and alert, he will advance more quickly. It is brain power, not muscles, that makes an occasional iron puddler rise to be head of a big steel company. It was brain training that made Abe Lincoln the rail-splitter into President Lincoln.

Yes, the man who makes his living with his hands needs all the brain training he can get.

He needs it not only in his work but for individual improvement in spare time. With a trained brain he will not submit ignora-ntly to industrial slavery. And he will recognize the wisdom of giving his children "a better start in life."

Despite all this, our educational system spends too much time developing the brain and too little time training "the hands." Theoretically, the boy who gets his rain educated in school, will have plenty of time to learn how to make money with his hands after he leaves school.

But the seemingly perpetual tendency of educators at large is to cram brains with as much impractical knowledge as possible.
By impractical knowledge, we mean knowledge that can never be converted into cash.

All this is idealistic, and we have to have idealism in life, but the world is very matter of fact, after all. Children would be a lot better off, for instance, if they got less history or botany and more of the fundamentals of economics—reasons why cost of living is so high and hard to meet —reasons why 95 per cent of children have to work with their hands after they leave school.

If we used more tin spoons instead of gold there figuratively would be less mush and more ice cream to be eaten.

Practical training first; impractical knowledge second. At least, until we catch up with and solve some of the economic problems created by too much teach-

Rare

Thirty-two thousand five hundred dollars is the price placed on the most valuable canceled postage stamp in the world. It sold for 1 cent in British Guiana in 1856. Owned by Arthur Hild of Utica, N. Y., said to have the finest stamp collection in existence.

As a matter of common sense, this stamp is worth no more than any fragment of paper. Its value is in its scarcity. It appeals to "pecuniary honorific," the desire to display the ability to pay.

Similar strange cases of "value" will become increasingly common as our rapidly growing wealthy leisure class looks about to gratify its vanity by possessing the exclusive and only.

Bugs

The high-grade writing paper industry is alarmed because rags, from which fine paper is made,
are no longer saved by housewives.

This nation of ours once had vast respect for the penny. Children were taught this respect in school. Sermons were preached about it. Editors encouraged it.
The mighty penny, alas, has fallen into evil days. With its buying power cut in two, the penny has become a target of indifference.
Economy will return as the shoe increasingly pinches. The rag-man will again ply his trade.

Fires

Smokers' matches start more fires than anything else, insurance company finds by check-up.
Spontaneous combustion ranks second—be careful not to leave oil rags where they can ignite and cause fires.

Third on the list of fire causes —defective flues and chimneys.
Fifth is electricity. Lightning is sixth, with sparks falling on roofs a close seventh. Another common fire origin—hot ashes. These are the things to watch. Tell the children.

Power

Scientists say one pound of matter, or material, as 600,000 million horsepower locked up in its atoms.

He doubts if man will ever learn how to unlock that power.
Unlocking it would be easier than handling it one it was released.

Man's not ready yet for the discovery. Giving him control of atomic power would be like handling a loaded shotgun to a strong, inquisitive baby. The first and prompt result of harnessing of atomic power would be another World War.

FORMER WHITE HALL
MAN MEETS DEATH

Vernon Harrison Dies From Injuries Received in Automobile Accident at Canton—Other
White Hall News

White Hall, Sept. 1.—Upon advice of the death of Vernon Harrison in an automobile accident at Canton, three uncles of the deceased, Robert Lovell and Jesse Harrison, left for Canton today to attend the funeral on Tuesday.
The deceased was the son of Mr.
and Mrs. William Harrison. His age was 38 years, and he was a native of White Hall, the family residing here prior to moving to Canton several years ago. A wife and son also survive. The automobile wreck in which this life was lost occurred Saturday night, but no details have been received. A brother of the deceased, Paul, died six years ago as the result of an attack of influenza at the age of 23 years, and now the parents are childless.

A fellow who poses as a human fly and gives exhibitions by being drawn up the side of a building by ropes, left a discreditable impression on his recent visit to White Hall. He makes an advertising deal with some local concern, automobiles being his line at White Hall, and also takes up a collection, netting him a large sum for being drawn up the side of a building by the aid of ropes, and then he tried to shake White Hall with a quantity of unpaid bills, including a broken window fronting the office of Dr.
E. J. Hume.

OPEN CAMPAIGN TO GET OUT THE VOTES

Eighty one Different Organizations Line up to take Part in this Movement — Significant Figures of Last Election Quoted.

New York, September 1.—Vote November 4. Vote As You Please, But—VOTE.

Broadcasting this non-partisan slogan into every single State in the Union in an effort to bring out a representative vote at the Presidential Election in November—sending the patriotic urge into thousands of factories, thousands of homes, and reaching millions of the eligible voters of the country, the nation wide Get Out The Vote campaign initiated by the National Association of Manufacturers and the National Industrial Council opens tomorrow in every single state in the country.

Fourteen national organizations of great influence, not of political nature; and sixty-seven state and local industrial organizations embracing members of all political complexions, will begin the work to make the vote of 1924 the greatest in the history of the country. More than 3,000 individuals and organizations of all kinds have been supplied with more than 15,000,000 pieces of material for the opening of the drive.

Every business and industrial community will be engaged and from the enthusiasm with which all organizations have responded to the appeal of John E. Edgerton, President of the Association, manufacturers are already predicting that the vote of 1924 will reach between 35,000,000 and 40,000,000 as against the lagged record of 260,000,000 for the year 1920, when less than half of the eligible voters of the country took enough interest in their national affairs to go to the polls.

Mr. Edgerton, sums up the importance of the present situation thus:

"Twenty-seven million people stayed away from the polls in 1920. Twenty-six million people—a minority of all the voters—elected a president in 1920. You ask if the ballot is any of your business.

"Do you know that the period of greatest increase in governmental expense—and taxes—is identical with the period of greatest increase in ballot slackers that we have known in all American history?"

Wide commendation has been expressed of the forcefulness, simplicity and attractiveness of the material that is being sent out in the manufacturers' campaign. The literature is divided into two effective classes—a red, white and blue sticker which reads:

"Vote, November 4—Vote as You Please, But—VOTE."

And a small folder, which proclaims a meeting of the Stockholders of the United States of America—and every single citizen is a stockholder—every eligible voter a preferred stockholder. This folder, in three hundred words, preaches a straightforward sermon, which tells in its very first four lines an impressive story of the indifference of the eligible voters in the administration to their national business affairs.

National organizations are joining the manufacturers campaign day by day, and up to the present the following have enlisted their full support with the Association.

The Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Will H. Hays, president. Mr. Hays has approved the campaign with fullest enthusiasm, because he has been personally interested in just such work for about ten years.

The American Radio Association, which urges every member of its organization to go to the polls and pound the necessity home wherever possible.

The Boy Scouts of America, which through its 680 different scout leaders throughout the country will distribute approximately a million copies of the stickers and folders, making house to house distribution in many parts of the country.

ROSCOE HOUSE HELD FOR PAXTON KILLING

Coroner's Jury Recommends That Negro Be Held to Grand Jury—Witnesses Tell Story of Shooting.

Roscoe House is being held in the county jail, on recommendation of the coroner's jury, for the killing of Chester Paxton, whom he is alleged to have shot to death Saturday night at the home of William Sales on South West St. The inquest was held at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Gillham Funeral Home, and at three o'clock the jury issued the following verdict:

"We, the jury, on oath do find that Chester Paxton died of gunshot wounds made by a 32 calibre revolver in the hands of Roscoe House. We recommend that the said House be held with bond to await the action of the grand jury at the next term of court, to answer for the death of Chester Paxton."

The inquest was largely attended by colored friends of the slain man and of the accused. The testimony given was somewhat conflicting in minor details, and no important new developments in the case were forthcoming. Chief of Police Kiloran and Patrolman Frank Baker told the story of their call to the Sales home and the subsequent arrest of House. The chief showed the jury the weapon with which the shooting is alleged to have been done.

Patrolman Baker stated that the officers were first called to the neighborhood about 5:15 o'clock Saturday evening on a report that there was trouble. They found everything quiet, and could get no information as to what had been the trouble, except that there had been an argument. The policemen returned to the station and about 5:55 o'clock were again called to South West street, this time on information that shooting had occurred. The officers found the body of Paxton lying in the back yard of the residence of Walter Woodson, next door south of the home of Roscoe House, who resides with his father-in-law, William Sales. The officers inquired as to who did the shooting and witnesses told them House was the man. They found the accused at his home and asked him if he had shot Paxton. He told them he had, and they asked for the gun. The accused took them into his house and produced the gun from a dresser drawer.

How Trouble Began

Silas Holiday, who also resides at the Sales home, told the story of the beginning of the trouble. He said Paxton came to the yard and approached him. Holiday passed the time of day, and Paxton answered aggressively and began a quarrel. Holiday started away, wishing to have no trouble. Paxton grabbed him, he said, and tried to strike him. Holiday shook off Paxton twice, and again the man assailed him, this time striking him a severe blow in the eye. The trouble was stopped by Sales, who told Holiday to go to his room, and ordered Paxton to go away.

Other witnesses, including William Sales, Clarence Clark and William Pitts, told the story of the shooting. It was brought out that House fired four shots and snapped his gun once. The jury examined the gun and found that the loaded cartridge remaining in the chamber bore the mark of the plunger, which seemed to bear out the testimony. Testimony varied as to the attitude of Paxton during the fusillade of shots. However, it was shown that he was retreating after the first or second shot. He stumbled over an object in the yard, staggered to the fence to the south and somehow went thru it. He then almost fell against the Woodson house and ended by falling in the back yard. One witness who arrived shortly after Paxton fell heard him gasp once. Another heard him say as he fought to keep his feet: "You have killed me."

Physician Testified

The most vital testimony in the case seemed to be that of Dr. H. C. Woltman who examined Paxton's body. The physician found three wounds, the most serious of which he believed was in the head. The bullet entered the head about an inch below and two inches back of the right ear, apparently lodging near the base of the brain. The doctor thought the ball might have penetrated the spinal column at a point where it would sever the nerves controlling the heart, a situation which would cause quick death.

Another bullet entered the body between the seventh and eighth ribs about five inches to the left of the spinal column. This ball pierced the lower lobe of the left lung, and lodged either in the spinal cord or in the liver. The third bullet caused a flesh wound on the left arm below the elbow. Chester Paxton was 26 years old at the time of his death. He was born and raised in this city and was a laborer by occupation. His home was at 319 Anna street. Paxton is survived by his wife, two sisters, Mrs. Mary Reed of Chicago, and Mrs. Lottie Martin of Peoria; one brother, Jonas Paxton of Peoria, and an aunt, Mrs. Sallie Williams of this city. Funeral arrangements are yet to be announced.

The jury impaneled for the inquest by Coroner C. A. Rose consisted of H. H. DeWitt, foreman, Rev. R. H. Hackley, Albert Tinsley, Marion Coln, Charles L. Starks and Eugene D. Hayden, clerk.

Miss Agnes Lonergan and Miss Lizzy Maroney left the city yesterday for Great Falls, Montana, where Miss Lonergan will teach in the schools of that city and Miss Maroney will serve as her housekeeper.

RETURNS FROM MICHIGAN

Lewis Wilson has returned to his home at 352 West College avenue after a visit to Lansing, Mich. He accompanied his son, Bickel Wilson of Greeley, Colo., to Michigan where the younger Mr. Wilson obtained will be two large motor buses which he used for passenger service in Colorado.

The buses attracted considerable attention in the city yesterday because of their completeness as a travel vehicle and large size.

Each car will easily accommodate 18 persons in the three compartments, one of which is partitioned off for use as a smoker, another for ladies and the remaining compartment for the driver.

Each of the buses cost about $5,500 and will be used in a daily trip from Greeley to Sterling, Colorado. Mr. Wilson states that the vehicles are the first of their kind to be used in the state of Colorado.

PESKY BED-BUGS

Bedbugs lay an average of seven eggs per day. Under favorable conditions they hatch in five days of which two-thirds are females. They mature to adult size and are capable of laying in four weeks. Few many bedbugs would you have in a year if you left one female or egg unmolested for one year.

To rid the pesky bedbugs, you readily see how necessary it is to use a preparation that will kill the eggs as well as the live ones.

P. D. Q. has been demonstrated by the leading Hospitals, Hotels and Railroad Companies that the safest and most economical way to stop future generations of bedbugs, roaches, moths and ants is to use LONG'S PHARMACY ARMSTRONG'S DRUG STORES

Used Kellogg's Bran 2 months—constipation gone after suffering 3 years

Three years of suffering with constipation. What happiness was his when Kellogg's Bran, cooked and crumbled, restored his health. But read his letter.

"Dear Sir: This is what I think of you. I would not be without it for anything in the world. For three years I used all kinds of medicines for constipation, and only got temporary relief. I was advised by a doctor to use Kellogg's Bran, and since I began using it I don't have to take pills or anything else. I have used it two months, and my constipation has left me. I feel better now than I have for three years."

(The original of this letter is on file at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Kellogg's Bran brings results because it is ALL bran. You can't fight constipation with halfway measures—with bran which is only part bran. It takes ALL bran to be 100 per cent effective.

Because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran it sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine. It acts naturally—just as nature acts. It stimulates the intestine and makes it function regularly. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will refund your money.

Kellogg's Bran has a delicious nut-like flavor. Quite different from ordinary, unpalatable bran. You will like it as a cereal, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the recipes given on every package. Eat two tablespoonsful of Kellogg's Bran every day—in chronic cases, with every meal. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

Gum Chewing Aids the Teeth

You have the authority of doctors and dentists for this statement. Your own experience will prove it, if you will use WRIGLEY'S after every meal.

The following quotations from a recent work on teeth and health are worth remembering:

"Dentists have found that the exercise of gum chewing brings about a better nutrition of the teeth . . ."

"The cleansing action of the gum between the teeth helps to keep them free from the particles which lodge in the crevices and cause decay."

The busy man—or woman either—rarely has time to clean the teeth after eating. Yet they should be cleaned, and will do it. Also it will aid digestion and furnish welcome refreshment to mouth and throat.

Sealed in its purity package, bringing all its original goodness and flavor to you.

LEGION STAGES MONSTER PARADE AT ENCAMPMENT

(Continued from Page One) tees of the legion and the auxiliary are to be heard tomorrow and nominations will be made tomorrow afternoon. No new candidates have appeared for the position of department commander, and it is generally agreed that Harry Newby, Howard T. Savage and Claude Foubare will be the leading candidates. Savage and Newby each have a large following and seem certain of large votes on the first ballot, while Foubare with a small but devoted following will develop as a strong contender in case of deadlock.

Mrs. C. E. Heywood of Berwyn is the only candidate for the office of president of the auxiliary for whom an active campaign is being waged.

Delegates generally agreed tonight that Quincy will get the next convention as the Quincy delegation is the only city that is actively bidding for the 1925 meeting.

After the brief business session and parade the delegates gave most of their time to sightseeing trips, reunions and other amusements.

Perry LaRue of Ames, Iowa is visiting at the home of relatives in the city.

FAIR WILL RECOVER FROM MONAY SETBACK

Efforts will be made this morning to insure comfort and continue the activities at the Morgan county fair, which was interrupted by the heavy rains yesterday afternoon. Two tons of straw will be unloaded on the midway, so that there will be a dry path between the tents. Several loads of chinders will be used about the horse barns.

It is believed that the track can be worked into shape for races this afternoon, and an effort will be made to finish yesterday's program and run off the regular schedule for today.

However, if it becomes necessary the fair and the racing program will be continued thru Saturday. The free acts are under a contract that will provide for their appearance on Saturday if necessary. Had the rain come yesterday morning, the fair association would have had $3,000 worth of insurance; but under the terms of the policy, no insurance can be collected for the setback received in the afternoon.

The program for all sessions is included in another column. Judging will begin this morning and will continue actively until the big task has been accomplished in all departments.

Health Much Better After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Detroit, Michigan.—"Your little book left at my door was my best doctor. I read it, then said to my husband, 'Please go and get me some Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I want to take it.' The first month I took three bottles of Vegetable Compound and one of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. If you only knew how much better I feel! Now when my friends say they are sick I tell them to take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines. I give the little book and your medicines the best of thanks."—Mrs. HAMER, 3765 25th Street, Detroit, Mich.

MINISTERS TELL TRUE CAUSE OF HERRIN TROUBLE

(Continued From Page One) cording to the best information available the sheriff went to Smith's garage, as he says, to take possession of the automobile placed there by other legal authorities. While there, Harry Herrin, president of the Board of Health, and a companion, came along and were attacked by the sheriff and his men. In a few moments Charles Denham, a dry alderman who had assisted in raids, came along with three other men in an automobile. They were stopped by the sheriff and his men, who opened fire. In the fight which followed the three occupants of the rear seat were killed, the two others were wounded and three of the men who came with the sheriff were killed. A fourth deputy was wounded. As above indicated, we do not make this as a positive statement of the facts, but it is only our belief after careful investigation.

"What is the remedy?" "The imprisonment of innocent men upon unfounded charges must cease. The persons guilty of these outrages must be brought to justice without favor or partiality. Honest witnesses must not be so cowed that they will fear to give evidence. The courts must dispense justice, punishing the guilty and protecting the innocent. To do that we need a state's attorney who will enforce the law and a sheriff who will apprehend the real criminals. We have neither."

STREET PREACHING HIGHLY RESPECTED IN FIGHT ON VICE

"Night Church" of Chicago Closes Twentieth Years' Service

CHICAGO, Ill. (AP)—Street preaching has attained greater protection by Chicago authorities, in this the twentieth year's service of "The Night Church" of Chicago, which was first organized under the name of "The Midnight Mission." Its anniversary is being observed this week.

Its course, however, was fraught with trials and opposition, according to Rev. Ernest A. Bell, the minister of the church, until the Chicago Church Federation lent its support.

Located, thru its street-service, at the edge of the Chicago restricted district in its early years, and maintaining its place today at Quincy and State streets, the organization has taken the lead in the fight against vice. Rev. Mr. Bell said, two of its 12 distinct services are listed as follows: "Battled 10 years to overthrow the vice district; cooperate with the Chicago Law and Order League in the injunction suit of Phil A. Otis, which Chief Justice Olson pronounced 'the Appomattox' protected vice in Chicago'."

"Initiated the white slave crusade in Chicago in a suit before Judge Newcomer, January 31, 1907; first proposed the federal white slave traffic act in a letter of our late president, Rufus S. Simmons, to President Roosevelt, August 28, 1908, and in an address by Ernest A. Bell before the general conference of the Soc. of Friends at Winona Lake, Ind., Sept. 1, 1908, with the Illinois Vigilance association, pioneered the injunction and abatement law for Illinois which the committee of fifteen finds its most powerful weapon against commercial vice; and arranged the union meetings of ministers which brought about the vice commission."

Distribution of Bible literature is an important work of the Night Church.

Doctor Bell has served as missionary in foreign lands and speaks a little of several different languages, and can accept a foreigner and offer him a testament and then say "good-bye" in several others. Friends tell that he sizes up an interested listener at a street service, decides what nationality the man is, and then addresses him in his own tongue.

For instance he will accept a dark complected man with the query in Spanish—"Is your honor Spanish?" That question is hardly answered when he follows up with the same language "Here is the gospel of St. John." The "many thanks" of the Spaniard is hardly muttered, when Mr. Bell closes the interview by exhausting his knowledge of the language with "Adios."

With his own hand, Doctor Bell has distributed copies of the gospels and testaments in 51 languages.

Amy Lowell's life of John Keats, which has been announced for publication several times, is definitely scheduled to appear this autumn under the imprint of Houghton Mifflin Company.

RURAL CARRIERS IN ANNUAL GATHERING

Yearly Picnic is Held at Nichols Park Yesterday—With Good Attendance.

About seventy-five rural mail carriers and their families from Scott, Greene, Cass and Morgan counties enjoyed their annual picnic at Nichols Park yesterday. Each family brought well filled baskets and a basket dinner was enjoyed. Following the dinner a business session took place at which time an election of officers was held. A program of games was shortened by the rain storm which took place early in the afternoon.

Very interesting reports were given by the delegates who recently attended the state convention at Decatur and the election of officers resulted in the naming of Otto E. Henry of Scott county as president and T. G. Beadles of Murrayville as secretary.

ARTIST PLANS YEARS OF TRAVEL IN WAGON

Seattle, Wash. (AP)—Sight-seeing in a covered wagon, with "Chicago in two years" as the first goal, is the plan of Louis Dana Johnson, a local artist, who has left here with his family on a journey of five or six years.

In a trim gray prairie schooner Betty Lou, aged 2, plays under the shelter of the canvas. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Barbara, aged 11, hike along the highway, off a year "in Chicago to study art. He then will continue to "hit the trail" until he and his family tire of the novelty. The schooner, which he constructed, is fitted with everything necessary for a home and a school.

Modesty is a pretty enough virtue—if it is not overdone. To refuse to sit for your photograph lest you should be charged with vanity is illogical. A man gets photographed not so much to please himself as for the sake of those who would like to keep a tangible record of him as they know him. Last time should prove vengeful—visit.

Woodall-Lashmet Reunion at Park

The initial reunion of the Woodall-Lashmet families took place at Nichols park Sunday, where it was decided to make the holding of a reunion, an annual custom, and to meet each year on the last Sunday in August at Nichols park. Plans to organize into a family association and elect officers were not carried out because of the sudden storm which arose about four o'clock Sunday afternoon, and caused a quick disbanding of the reunion guests.

The reunion Sunday included the serving of a bountiful picnic luncheon at noon, and the afternoon hours were spent socially.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dolan, daughters Sara Frances and Elizabeth, and sons Allen and Samuel of Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dolan and son Virgil of Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dolan of Winchester; Mrs. Charles Woodall of Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Woodall of Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. Jess T. Dean, daughters Ella Louise and Madeline of Murrayville; Mr. and Mrs. Muriel McEvers, daughter Roberta and son Muriel Jr. of Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lashmet of Nortonville; Mrs. Charles Lashmet, Nortonville; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Oxley and son Donald of Nortonville; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lashmet of Jacksonville; Mrs. William Kirkpatrick, son Albert and daughter Isabel of Alsey; Mr. and Mrs. James Woodall and daughter Grace of Alsey; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arnold and son, Clotus of Alsey; Mr. and Mrs. John Alsey and son Weldon of Winchester; Lee Woodall of Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harker of Murrayville.

Smith Reunion at Rural Home

The descendants of Ashford Smith held their annual reunion Sunday, at the home of Lewis C. Smith, two miles northeast of Concord, with 241 guests registered, making one of the largest reunions that have ever been held in the county. Over 120 direct descendants of Ashford Smith were present, and the reunion represented four states and seven counties.

At noon, an elaborate luncheon was laid for the guests, and the afternoon hours were spent socially.

During a short business session, the following officers were elected:

President—Spencer Smith.

Secretary—Austin Smith.

Treasurer—Lella Newton.

Historian—Mrs. Grover Smith.

Corresponding Sec'y—Clyde Goodpasture.

It was voted to hold the 1925 reunion on the last Sunday in August, meeting again at the home of Lewis C. Smith.

Annual Reunion of Mansfield Family

The fifth annual reunion of the Mansfield family was a pleasant affair for over a hundred guests, who met for the occasion at Nichols park Sunday afternoon, Aug. 31. Members of the family representing the descendants of six of the Mansfield brothers were present, the counties of Morgan, Macoupin, and Green were well represented, and guests from many outside states were present.

At noon, attractive picnic tables were spread in the cool of the park shade trees, and were laden with the elaborate courses of food that composed the reunion banquet.

Early in the afternoon, the business session was called, with the President, Isaiah Whitlock, of Murrayville presiding. Several deaths and births and two marriages among the descendants of the Mansfield family were noted, and letters were read from absent ones, expressing regret that they could not be present. It was with regret that the absence of Mr. and Mrs. John Peaker, caused by illness in their family, was noted. The name of Henry Story, 87 years old, of White Hall, was recorded as being the oldest member present.

It was voted to hold the 1925 reunion on the last Sunday in August, at Nichols Park.

An election of officers resulted as follows:

President—Lon Mansfield, of Greenfield.

1st Vice-President—Arthur Van Winkle, Franklin.

Dr. A. E. Prince of Springfield, Illinois, will see his eye, ear, nose and throat patients in Jacksonville the 1st Thursday of each month at the Dunlap Hotel.

Menus for a Family

Breakfast—Baked pears, boiled rice, top milk, cream broiled bacon, whole wheat toast, cornmeal griddle cakes, maple sirup, coffee, milk.

Luncheon—Creamed celery on toast, caramel custard, graham crackers, tea, milk.

Dinner—Lamb stew, with vegetables, corn on the cob, head lettuce salad, apple snow, sponge cake, coffee, milk, bread and butter.

After older children have eaten their cereal they may have one or two carefully baked pancakes with sirup, but a child under six or seven should not be permitted to eat griddle cakes or waffles.

When the man of the family is not at home for luncheon the meal can be planned exclusively for the children. A busy mother will find the food quite as nourishing and helpful to her as the children. A woman "raising" a family has a real job on her hands and must be "fit" if she would do it well. She can't live on the wings and back-bones of the chicken and the tough tails of the steaks, do her work and have the best of herself to give to her family.

The lamb stew with vegetables, apple snow, sponge cake and milk are planned for the children's dinner, but will be equally acceptable to grown-ups.

Creamed Celery
Two cups diced stalks celery, 2 tablespoons butter, 1-2 tablespoons flour, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1-2 teaspoon sugar, 1 cup milk, 2 tablespoons celery stock.

Use the outer stalks of celery for stewing. Put in stewpan, pour over boiling water to cover and boil until tender. Replenish water as necessary to prevent burning but do not use more water than will boil away while cooking. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper and add celery. There will be about 2 tablespoons water cling to the celery if it is cooked in little enough water not to need draining. When thoroughly heated, but not boiling, pour over hot buttered toast.

Caramel Custard
Two-thirds cup brown sugar, 3 eggs, 2 cups milk, 1-2 teaspoon salt.

Melt 6 tablespoons sugar over a slow fire. Warm custard cups and an equal amount of the caramel in each cup. Beat eggs well with salt and remaining sugar. Add milk heated in top of double boiler until "blood" heat. Beat into egg mixture and pour into cups. Bake in a pan of hot water in a moderate oven until firm to the touch. Do not let the water boil during the baking. It will take about 40 minutes to bake. Remove from cups while warm and serve cold. (Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

2nd Vice-President—Mrs. Grace Wheeler, Scottville.

Treasurer—T. O. Knapp, Jacksonville.

Secretary and Historian—Mrs. Dora Lowdermilk, Jacksonville.

It was a pleasant day for every one, spent socially, and with reminiscence. During the day a number of friends of the Mansfield family called on them at the Park to renew old acquaintances.

WISE COUNSELLOR IS WINNER OVER EPINARD

Crack French Horse Finishes Second, Ladkin Third, Snob II, Fourth and the Great Zev Fifth.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Frederick A. Burton's Wise Counsellor, chestnut son of Mentor, by Rustle at odds of 13 to 5 won the big International Special from a field of nine starters at Belmont Park today, leading Epinard, Pierre Wertheimer's great French, throbbed to the wire by half a length. August Belmont's Ladkin was third, three lengths astern of Epinard.

The time for the six furlongs was 1:11 4-5. The race carried a money value of $29,000 to the victor. Sixty thousand persons, including the Prince of Wales, saw the turf classic.

Epinard, despite his defeat, demonstrated he is a great runner. Quoted with Zev at 3 1/2 to 1, the champion three year old of France in 1923, lost the race only after a heart-breaking drive with Wise Counsellor down the stretch.

Epinard came in three lengths ahead of Ladkin, with Snob II in fourth place, half a length ahead of Zev, who pulled up in the stretch.

Wilderness was sixth, Baffling seventh, Miss Star, the only filly in the race, eighth, and Gossawk trailing the field. Rialto, Little Chief and Worthmore were scratched just before the start of the big special.

The race clearly shows that Epinard needs one competition race under his saddle before he becomes fully acclimated to American tracks and racing conditions.

The great French thoroughbred showed plenty of speed but he misjudged Wise Counsellor's ability in the stretch and could not counter with speed enough to shake off the flying Burton colt.

The day was stifling hot and the track lightning fast. The crowd, one of the greatest which ever saw a race at Belmont, completely filled the stands, overflowed on to the lawn, and poured into the infield. Pierre Wertheimer, while he would make no authorized statement, said he was satisfied with the result of today's race and that future events would determine the racing value of Epinard. The French colt will train at Belmont for the next ten days, it was announced.

At the start it looked like a race between Zev and Epinard. Jockey Haynes up on Epinard, was watching Fater on Zev, and appeared content to allow the "clucks" to set the pace, figuring that in order to find the wire first it was necessary to outrun the Ranocosa star. But Zev weakened, and Wise Counsellor furnished the opposition which was too great for Epinard to overcome.

Zev looked good as he went to the post. Epinard came out singularly calm and paraded to the barrier without a misstep. But Wise Counsellor carried the most money and was made the favorite.

INDEES DEFEAT BEARDSTOWN 6 TO 2

Three Visiting Pitchers Fail to Stop Locals in Sunday's Contest

Rain in a plentiful supply stopped the game Sunday between the Indies and Beardstown, but not before Smith's bunch had proved conclusively that they were far superior to the visitors, the game closing at the end of the first half of the fifth with the score standing 6 to 2 in favor of the Indies, thus giving the Indies an official game.

After the sun came out Monday Smith and the Beardstown manager decided to try it again in the afternoon but another flood came at the end of three and one-half innings, when the game was standing 1 to 0 in favor of the locals, and besides pitching a grand game, poked out a long one which scored the only run for his teammates. As the contest was declared no game, the other game will be played here next Sunday afternoon. Following is the score of Sunday's short-session struggle.

Swan, the first man up for the visitors, lived on first baseman DeFrat's error and finally registered on R. Bauman's blow. In the Indies half, French drew a base on balls, Clark singled, Rubie flied out, Boyd lived on Withead's error and Wilson lived on Pettit's error, both French and Clark scoring. Beardstown tied up the count two all in the third frame, but could not hold it, the Indies coming back in their half with four more tallies. The locals had Whitehead's number, and he was benched in favor of Southpaw Wright when two were down in the third, but Wright's port wing was not working well and about the only thing he was able to get over the balls, so he was removed at the beginning of the fourth, R. Bauman coming in from the outfield to take up the burden. Beardstown connected with Fryman's offerings safely but four times, two coming in the first inning and two in the third, while the big boy was able to make seven of them go back and sit down during the short contest. All of the errors made by the Indies proved costly, none of Beardstown's runs being earned.

One of the largest crowds of the season was present, and consequently, a large crowd became more or less damp.

The score:
Beardstown—AB R H O A E

MISS COLETT LOWERS OWN GOLF RECORD

Nayatt, R. L., Sept. 16. (AP)—A record-breaking 79 for 18 holes today won the qualifying medal in the women's national golf tournament for Miss Glenna Collett, heavy hitting youthful star of the Rhode Island country club, where the tournament is being played. Never before has eighty been broken in the tournament.

Miss Collett herself held the former record—an 81 made two years ago.

TILDEN HAS TOUGH TIME WITH RICHARDS

Forrest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 1. (AP)—William T. Tilden was forced to five sets today before he conquered his youthful former pupil, Vincent Richards, in the semi-finals of the national tournament and won the right to defend his title tomorrow against William M. Johnston. The scores were 4-6, 6-2, 8-6, 4-6, 6-4.

Billy Evans SAYS

"Not in years has the American League race offered such a soft spot for a just good club to win the pennant," says Lee Fohl, manager of the Boston Red Sox.

"The race is made to order for a consistent club of fair strength since all the favorites are erratic."

"Very few clubs have put over a sustained winning streak this year. That is unusual. 'Certain clubs picked to win go along consistently for a week or so and then slump badly."

"Take Washington, for instance. On the last western trip, the Nationals started by dropping three out of four to Cleveland, a club that was going badly. That was a jolt to Washington's chances."

"Hope was revived when the Nationals went into Detroit and won three out of four from the league leaders."

"Then came the terrible reversal of form, five straight defeats by the St. Louis Browns, followed by just an even break at Chicago."

"All of which proved that a club needs only be half consistent to win this year."

Fohl's size-up of the American League situation is based on fact. Not in years have the clubs favored to win played such erratic, inconsistent ball. One day good, the next day just as bad.

No doubt the erratic play of the world champion Yankees has been caused to a great extent by a rather shabby brand of pitching.

Perhaps it is well for the American League that the five-star pitching staff of the New York Yankees has wobbled considerably this year.

New York has dropped any number of games this year in which the club has made five or more runs. Until this year, five runs just about clinched a game for the Yankees.

The injury to Second Baseman Ward also handicapped the champs. Ward came into his own last year as a truly great second sacker, and the loss of so great a player over a period of eight weeks must be felt.

The breaking of Earl Combs' leg also hurt some. I regard Combs as the greatest outfielder to break into the American League for the last 10 years.

It looks very much as if the club that could settle down and play consistently the rest of the way, would win in the American League.

The Yanks seem to be less worried than any club in the race. Every ball game is just a game with them.

After all, experience may be the deciding factor in the race. The Yanks have it, they have been through three tough campaigns.

HAMM AND HUBBELL TO MEET IN FINALS

Match of Forty Holes Between Hamm and Wood Phillips Played Monday, the Game Being Finished in Heavy Rain.

Playing all of the second round and the extra holes in the third game of the championship flight in the city golf championship tournament, Cass Hamm was winner over Wood Phillips, 1 up, the match going forty holes. J. W. Hubbell also defeated Ed Tomlinson 2 up, in the same flight and Hamm and Hubbell will play off the championship game next Sunday, September 7th, weather permitting.

In the second flight, Worrall won from J. Johnson, 2 up and 1 to play.

Flynn defeated Singley and Barton in the third flight.

The interference of rain postponed the finishing of both the fourth and fifth flights, these two to be played some time this week.

HAWTHORNE RACE MEET CLOSED LABOR DAY

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—With the meeting of the Labor Day Handicap, the 52 day race meeting at Hawthorne closed today. The event at a mile and a quarter, with $5,000 added, was won by Princess Doren, a 7 to 2 favorite by 10 lengths. Laveen was second and Prince III, third.

Announcement was made that the 1925 Hawthorne season would be in creased to 58 racing days, opening July 2nd and continuing until September 6th.

H. G. BRADNEY ELECTED TO HIGH STATE OFFICE

Local Man, Well Known in Former Service Men's Circles, is Named Grand Chief de Gare at State Convention of Forty and Eight at Champaign.

Homer G. Bradney of this city was elected to the office of Grand Chief de Gare at the state convention of the Forty and Eight of Illinois at Champaign yesterday, by a unanimous vote. By his election to this office Mr. Bradney is honored by holding the highest position in this organization in the state of Illinois.

The session of the Forty and Eight was held on Sunday and Monday August 31 and September 1 and the following election ended with a grand promenade which included the initiation of many candidates from the American Legion into the mysteries of the higher ex-service men's organization, La Societe des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux.

Fully fifty wearers of the blue chapeaux from Morgan County were in attendance at the state meet at Champaign boosting for the election of their candidate for Grand Chief de Gare. The advance guard of the delegation with the French train left the city Saturday morning and not only did their unique engine and box car attract attention enroute to the convention city but they were the center of attraction on many occasions upon their arrival at their destination. Not only did the French train create a sensation among the former service men but the drum and bugle corp of the Jacksonville Post of the American Legion together with the School for the Deaf Band came in for a large share of the honors.

From the time of their arrival Forty and Eighters from Morgan county with their supporters from all over the state began their work of putting over their candidate Homer G. Bradney, for Grand Chief de Gare and hours before the election took place on convention floor Bradney's election was conceded by his opponents.

The naming of Mr. Bradney to this high office comes in recognition of his sterling qualities, efficiency and capabilities as commander of the local unit of the Forty and Eight and his work in the American Legion in Morgan county and the state. The efficient work accomplished in this city by Grand Chief de Gare Bradney has attracted the attention of former service men throughout Illinois and it was thru his splendid efforts that he was named to the office that became his yesterday.

Mr. Bradney assumes office with an enviable record of accomplishments performed in behalf of the ex-service men. He has served as vice commander of the Jacksonville post of the American Legion and is now a member of the Executive Committee, Chairman of the Building Plat committee and a Director and Vice-President of the American Legion Memorial Home Association of the local post.

In the year 1923 he organized Voiture No. 513, was elected the first Chief de Gare and succeeded himself in 1924. He is also chairman of the fourth district of the Grand Voiture of Illinois. His slogan, "Service o the Legion," indicates his interest in the work for the benefit of the former World War veteran and in him the veterans of the state have a tireless and capable worker.

The Morgan County Fair in its opening day yesterday attracted an almost capacity crowd, and gave promise of a most successful outcome. The program was carried out according to schedule, except that the horse races had to be curtailed because of a shower of rain which came up late in the afternoon.

The fair program opened Monday morning with a concert by the Jacksonville Community Band at one-thirty in the afternoon, a large audience in the grandstand chief engineer of the state of Illinois. Mr. Sheets was introduced by J. L. Henry, one of the directors of the fair association.

In a brief, forceful address, the speaker discussed the proposed one hundred million dollar bond issue for hard roads in Illinois, and urged his hearers to cast their votes in the November election for this proposal.

In noting the progress that Illinois has made recently in this direction, Mr. Sheets called attention to the fact that only a few years ago this state ranked only twenty-third in the matter of road improvement. Since then, he said, Illinois has broken the world record in the construction of hard roads.

Great Record Made
The speaker recalled that in 1906, when he first became interested in good roads, he dared not advocate the building of hard roads, but had to be satisfied with urging citizens of the state to keep the dirt roads dragged. Since then, public sentiment has changed. Illinois has build over 3,100 miles of hard roads in the past three and a half years. These have been paid for, partly by license fees, partly by federal aid, and partly by a sixty million dollar bond issue.

Mr. Sheets stated that sixty-five percent of the present hard roads of the state were laid in the past three and a half years, and that the estimated construction for 1924 is 1,200 miles. During the present year, he said, roads have been built in every county of the state.

It was stated that the new road building program, to be inaugurated if the bond issue is passed by the voters, will follow lines similar to that of the previous plan, now almost completed. Roads will be made between definite points, while, at the same time, no section of the state will be neglected. Routing details, as before, will be determined by state officials after public hearings.

Mr. Sheets declared that if the new bond issue is carried, Morgan county will eventually have hard roads amounting in cost to $2,750,000.

The address was followed by the initial heats of the races, until these were cut short by rain. The Community band continued its part in the entertainment during the afternoon but the evening concert had to be abandoned on account of the weather.

News Notes
Monday evening the Guy Baldwin company furnished a free entertainment, including a display of fireworks. The J. K. Pearson shows were also open, and did a big business. This company has a large number of attractions on the grounds, including a Big Eli wheel, manufactured in Jacksonville, and a merry-go-round.

The Sunday evening storm did no damage at the fair grounds except to blow down the large tent for the exhibits of swine and sheep, he awning for the grandstand, and a few flags. These were put in place again early Monday morning.

The good patronage of the fair on its opening day was a source of great satisfaction to the directors. The four special fair policemen were kept busy all day directing the traffic. Every available foot of concession space had been taken before the fair opened.

The Boy Scout "good turn" headquarters was in demand throughout the opening day. At this tent, parcels and articles of clothing are checked free of charge, and a "lost and found" service is maintained.

The Morgan County Farm Bureau had in its headquarters tent a supply of comfortable chairs, which are available for the use of visiting farmers. The bureau is keeping a register of visitors, and on the closing day of the fair will give away a carload of lime-tone.

The gates of the grounds are in charge of H. E. Kitner, who is assisted by Ernest Lair, Eugene Darr, Owen Graff, Bernard Camm and Robert LaRue. Tickets at the amusement concessions are being checked by Earl Hoover, Louis Gard, Crum Cleary, James Burke, Ellsworth Scott and Jack Benson.

The Races
The opening of the afternoon found the track still slightly muddy from the hard rain of Sunday, but volunteer autoists brought their cars on the track and circled around it until it was fairly well packed, although at the time the first heat was run the track was still slightly spongy and slow. The crowd were forced to wait until 2:45 for the completion of Frank Sheets' hard road speech and it was not until 2:55 that the horses began to take the track for the first heat of the 2:17 pace. In the first heat of this race Loppy Forbes drew the pole, and after scoring six times Judge Kirby sent them away to a fair start. Moore, Dr. J. W. Sperry's horse, went into a break on the first turn and was unable to catch up the distance in the heat which was fought out on close terms between Loppy Forbes and Johnny Todd. Loppy Forbes leading by a small margin in the first lap but losing the heat also by a small margin in the second lap, challenging Johnny Todd right up to the wire.

In the first heat of the 2:20 trot, Carolyn Watts drew the pole but went almost immediately into a bad break from which she never fully recovered, finishing a bad last. It looked like Bennie Dillon was slated for a walkaway in this heat but on the second lap Edna Mayo, an added starter, came up fast and Bennie Dillon was forced to extend himself to take the heat from the Concord mare.

This was as far as the racing program was allowed to go as a strong wind struck the grounds and the spectators who braved the wind were a short time later forced to leave on account of a heavy downpour of rain. With clear skies today, it is believed that the track program may be continued this afternoon, as a force of men will be put on the track this morning, if possible to work, getting the moisture worked out in time for the afternoon's races.

MARRIED SUNDAY IN EASTERN CITY

Miss Marjorie Page of Douglas Manor, L. I., is Bride of Richard Reynolds—Will Come to Jacksonville Soon.

Richard Reynolds of this city and Miss Marjorie Page were united in marriage Sunday at Lake George, N. Y., the summer home of Miss Page's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Page of Douglas Manor, Long Island. A telegram received yesterday by Mrs. Lella T. Reynolds made announcement of the wedding event.

The bride graduated at Centenary Collegiate institute at Hackettstown, N. J., then spent two years at St. Mary's school at Raleigh, N. C., and still another year at the New England Conservatory of Music. The family is prominent socially on Long Island and Mrs. Reynolds has been active in amateur dramatic affairs of the younger social set.

Mr. Reynolds' engagement to this young lady from the east was announced a number of months since and for several weeks past he has been a guest at the Page home at Lake George. Born in Jacksonville, Mr. Reynolds has spent all of his life here and has been prominent socially and in fraternal life. He has also taken part in political affairs, and is now serving as secretary of the Morgan County Democratic committee. For years he has been associated with his father, John G. Reynolds, in the ownership of the Reynolds Mortuary.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds are expected in Jacksonville in the course of a few days.
